

Guidelines 2022 Open Call

DIVA is delighted to announce our next Open Call Exhibition, which will take place in our gallery space in Dún Laoghaire running from the __th of November to the __th of December. (Decide dates)

The aim of this Open Call is to highlight work by emerging artists and to give a platform to new and fresh work made in our newly re-opening world following the COVID-19 pandemic. (Or a theme mayhaps?)

Entry Requirements

- Artists must demonstrate a (something to do with theme of work, ethos as an artist, etc.)
- Artists must fill out all of the information required in our 'Information' section below and send it back to us in full. Artists who do not fill out the full information section will not be eligible for selection.
- Artists must provide a high-resolution image of their work in the submission email to be considered (JPG image, 300DPI Maximum file size: 3MB. Any application with image files larger than 3MB will not be accepted). These images may be attached via email, embedded into the Entry Form, or sent via WeTransfer.
- Artists may submit no more than three individual works in their submission.

- These pieces must be the artist's original work.
- All works submitted must be display-ready. Any equipment that is specific and/or integral to the display of the artwork will need to be provided by the artist.
- We will not be charging commission on this Open Call - therefore any potential buyers will be put directly in contact with the artist via email, and all transactions will be made privately between artist and buyer.
- The submission deadline is the __th of October. Artists must have their work, ready for display, on site at 24 Mellifont Avenue no later than the __th of _____.
- After the run of the exhibition (__ weeks), we ask the exhibiting artists to collect their works on the __th and __th of December, and no later.
- All selected artists agree for their works to be featured in content on DIVA's various social medias (e.g: Facebook, Instagram, and our website).
